INDONESIAN RHEUMATOLOGY ASSOCIATION WORLD LUPUS DAY 2019

Indonesian Rheumatology Association (IRA) commemorated World Lupus Day in branches all around Indonesia on April 28th, 2019. The first event was opened in Jakarta, in collaboration with IRA branch Jakarta. This event was held on Sudirman street during Car Free Day in Jakarta. We also invite the Ministry of Health and association of lupus patients. The event started with remarks by the chairman of IRA and the chairman of IRA branch Jakarta, continued with counseling with lupus patients in consultation booths, talkshow about awareness for lupus, quizzes for the audience, musical art performances and poetry from lupus patients. After the big event in Jakarta, World Lupus Day event also held in other cities.

The next event in was held in Aceh, Bandung, Semarang, Surabaya, Malang, Makassar, Surakarta, Jogjakarta, Bali, and Balikpapan. The World Lupus Day event in those branches consisted of seminars, mini symposium, talkshow, counseling, lupus exercise and other activities that increase awareness about lupus. Those event also broadcasted on medias, such radio, television, and internet (social media). These event were held to increase knowledge and awareness on lupus patients, families, goverment and most importantly general public who are still unfamiliar with lupus.

We hope that through these event people will know and understand better about lupus. Therefore, Indonesian Rheumatology Association will continue commemorates World Lupus Day each year with various activities to increase awareness and knowledge about Lupus.
